PROFESSIONAL MEDIA & SPEAKING KIT

Dr. Anthony L. Paduano

SCHOLAR | EDUCATOR | EMT | PUBLIC SERVANT

About Dr. Paduano

Dr. Anthony L. Paduano is a communication scholar, college educator, and nationally registered emergency medical technician. He holds a Ph.D. in Communication from Liberty University and has taught in higher education for more than two decades. His scholarship examines how Hollywood films construct cultural meanings, including power, identity, and firearm symbolism. He serves in the New York Guard, works in New York City emergency medical services, and contributes to community emergency response through Bravo Volunteer Ambulance Corps. He is also a partner at IDR Technology Solutions, an Eagle Scout, and an Assistant Cubmaster with Pack 715.

Speaking & interview topics

- Communication, symbols, and meaning in popular film
- Emergency medical services and first-responder communication
- Leadership, technology, and public-service operations
- Media literacy, identity, and social construction
- Community service, Scouting, and volunteer leadership
- Technology planning for schools and organizations

Selected credentials & affiliations

Ph.D. in Communication, Liberty University | NREMT | EMT credentials: NY, FL, PA | New York Guard Specialist | Partner, IDR Technology Solutions | Eagle Scout

AVAILABLE FOR SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS, INTERVIEWS & PODCASTS

Contact: www.dranthonypaduano.com/#contact

Research: digitalcommons.liberty.edu/doctoral/8871